AmCham's Professional Women's Committee invites you to explore:

Women's Leadership
for the 21st Century with Celeste Schenck
President, American University of Paris*

Tuesday October 23rd, 2012, from 6:30pm – 8:30pm at AmCham – 77 rue de Miromesnil 75008 Paris (Metro: Miromesnil)

President Schenck says, "Women's leadership for a 21st century that has need of it is both an imperative and a fact. What kind of leadership is increasingly called for by contemporary society and why do women so clearly fill the bill?" Join her for a thought-provoking discussion about the increasing fit between women's demonstrated leadership capacities and 21st century needs

This year marks AUP's 50th Anniversary*

We look forward to sharing with you what promises to be a very informative evening!

Shari Leslie Segall, Chair, Professional Women's Committee

Mark Levinson and Georges Nurdin, Co-chairs, Training & Education
