AmCham's Professional Women's Committee and Training & Education Committee invite you to a special presentation about

Educating the Next Generation of Leaders with

Aaron Hubbard

Upper School Director, Deputy Head of School

American School of Paris and

Chandler Sterling

American School of Paris 2013 Senior accepted to Princeton and Oxford

After Aaron's brief overview of the American School of Paris, Chandler will share her vision of what young women need in order to make their mark in today's world—and tell us how ASP has prepared her for the future!

We look forward to sharing with you what promises to be an extremely interesting evening!

Shari Leslie Segall, Chair, Professional Women's Committee

Mark Levinson and Georges Nurdin, Co-Chairs, Training and Education Committee

The Professional Women's Committee, founded in 1997, organizes speaker and networking events.
