

Save The Date

The AmCham France Training and Education Committee is pleased to invite you to its first post-summer event:

Global Corporate Strategy and Local Constraints

Mark Levinson, Chair of the Education Committee, will introduce the event and the high-level speaker panel to include the exceptional presence of Nicolas Lemoine, President AT&T France and VP Southern Europe, Middle East, Africa and Lecturer at HEC Paris.

Mr Lemoine will share his insights on how to successfully implement the overarching directives that come in from US headquarters and share how he implements these while overcoming the local constraints in the countries he oversees. The panel debate will be followed by an interactive Q&A session and a networking cocktail.

For now, please save the date. We will contact you in the coming weeks with further information once registration opens.

Wednesday, September 24, 2014

6:30pm-8:30pm

Followed by a networking cocktail
